The pinwheel is the nationally recognized symbol for child abuse prevention. It represents hope and bright futures we want for children!

*Please join us in showing our community will not stand for abuse;
We stand for prevention and will stand up for the protection of our children!*

You can show this commitment by purchasing a blue pinwheel bundle, along with a proclamation of your support to display at your home or business throughout the month of April. The pinwheels look great displayed as a bouquet inside or make a great attraction as a pinwheel garden outside.
